THE KNIGHTS' NOTES

Last Sunday's game saw our league side finish with seventeen men on the field. Ron De Boer received a broken nose which has been set and he should be fit quickly. However, Bob Dayman has a suspected fractured jaw and at the time of writing is an unknown quantity as to how long he will be out. Dave McGlade's torn thigh muscle should heal quickly and John Legena will be ready to resume this week.

Although battered and bruised our League side came through with flying colours and maintained their cool throughout.

BEST PLAYERS

FRANK LEGENA — courage and class.

ALAN DRAGGETT — speed and ability.

TERRY LLOYD — a success at full forward.

ROD ELMER — very solid at full back.

JOHN LANGE — penetrating at half back.

This is becoming a standard phrase in these notes but the reserves were again defeated. The ability is there but the teamwork is not forthcoming. Best players were Drew Proctor, Henry Elkhout and Garry Frazier.

PLAYER OF THE WEEK

This space was to have been used for Bill Hazell on the day he played his last game before going overseas. However, the good news for all those who haven't heard yet is that Bill and Lee have postponed their trip until after the grand final so let's see we do the right thing by them and win that flag.

Bill has given our club tremendous service and he is a dual talent and best winner. He seems able to play anywhere on the field and turn in a good game. Bill never stops talking on the field and he is an inspiration by both word and deed to our team.

Not only a great footballer, but a great clubman. Bill has served the club very successfully as Social President and gives his support to everything the club does.

SOCIAL NOTES

The Independence Day Dance tickets are available from the Social Committee. At $3.50 per ticket, including drinks, this is a bargain night, so let's have a good attendance.

Angela will be contacting the ladies, probably today, re their night out which will be on shortly.

Today it's Mandurah, a side a hard to beat on their own ground and a double would be very nice thank you.

QUOTE OF THE WEEK:

Don't be beaten, hold your head up, To your own self be true.

Take the air in through your nostrils, Grit your teeth and see it through.

KALAMUNDA KOUGARS

How — our injured players list grows and last Sunday's performance was no indication of our potential.

A pleasing feature is the improvement shown of our younger players:— Don Dantolne, Glen O'Rourke, Neil Price, Gary Gartside, and Graham O'Grady.

Kenwick showed us how to play positive football and we must learn from this. Congratulations to Paddy Dalton and his team.

We need all the support we can get for the BALL, JULY 12th, AT MIDLAND TOWN HALL.

Tickets available from Steve Cribb, $12 double; Drinks and Supper Provided; Good Band and Floorshow.

We want 250 people, spread the word now, bring mothers, fathers, wife, girlfriends, friends and your mates — best girl, in fact we will accept anyone including support from kindred. How about the umpires joining us, we would love to have you.

IF YOU WANT TO PHONE BOOKINGS RING 85 9067.

Welcome Thornlie, we extend an invitation to join us at the Wattle Grove Hall after the game.

DEMONS DIGEST 'COME ALIVE - IN 75!'

This week, we go to Gosnells F.C., the 'Hawks,' one of this season's contenders. If we are to wipe out the memory of last week's games, we MUST think positive, use the obvious talent we have to the full, and do as our slogan demands, 'come-alive!'

The man with the ball is in the box seat, it's what the other seventeen men do without the ball, that gets the team first past the post. Think about it.

At Kelmscott last week, both teams were soundly beaten, with no excuses. Kelmscott's ability to get loose, coupled with their accurate kicking and marking, enabled them to surge goalwards at will. On the credit side for the Demons, the Heron Brothers, Phil and Steve, stuck to their guns in the Reserves game, and Colin Towers showed that he is still a league side player.

In the League game, Terry 'Emu' Slater was easily the best player for the Demons, followed by Allan 'Flyer' Narkle, Matt O'Mara, and Johnny 'Tanglefoot' Connell. 'Emu' played his last game in this game before going up to Darwin. By coincidence, he played his first game for the Demons against Kelmscott.

'Emu' has never played a bad game for us, on the contrary, he's always been amongst the five best players. Good luck to you 'Emu', it goes without saying that we'll be more than glad to have you back again.

Royce 'Wilko' Wilkerson played his 50th league game in this game, and the Club will be presenting 'Wilko' with a memento to this effect at our next home game on July 20th. Congratulations 'Wilko', from all of us.

I've never commented on umpiring before, but from the standard we have sometimes had this season in League games, I cannot see why Frank Ellis is not in the League umpires squad. Perhaps his face doesn't fit. Whether this is the case or not, it is we, the clubs, that pay for these umpires, and its administration, and in return have the right to expect the best umpiring ability available, other factors do not come in to it.

After losing to Thornlie two weeks ago, the Under 18's bounced back again last week at Gwynne Park, to beat Gosnells, nearly doubling their score. Best players were: David Fulcran, Russell Bishop, and Peter Smith. Keep it up fellas, we'll have a flag in our clubrooms for this year, yet!

NOTICES

BINGO: On Monday night, at Gwynne Park, 8 p.m. Come on over and enjoy yourself for a couple of hours, and support YOUR club at the same time.

BLAZERS: Available to all members and supporters of the Club. See Joe Bavich for details, or call in at Worth's, Jull St., Armadale.

T-SHIRTS: Still some left, see Mal Pratt.

"THE BULLS ROAR"

In what can only be described as disappointing, the Bulls managed to hold on and draw with Gosnells in the League game last Sunday. In a first-class exhibition of team football, the Bulls quickly warmed to their task and systematically destroyed Gosnells in the first 40 minutes of the game. Led by Dennis Cometti the Bulls played a brand of football rarely seen.

Then inexplicably, midway through the second quarter, a transformation took place. From a team of desperate footballers, we became a disjointed unorganised pack of individuals. There is no consolation in the fact that we drew, as we should have won by 30 goals. It is only to be hoped that the players will shrug out of their lethargic attitude and put together 4 quarters of football. From here on we have to fight for a position in the second semi final, and the most disappointing aspect of this is that Sunday was a passport to that achievement.

BEST PLAYERS

DENNIS COMETTI — one could not find enough superlatives to describe his game.

EDDY MADIGAN — the smallest man on the ground; raised to great heights in an endeavour to turn defence into attack.

JIM BUTLER — converted the opportunities given him, finishing with 8 majors.

ROSS PALMER — worked tirelessly in an effort to lift the team in the second half but unfortunately was not given the support required.

The Reserves game proved a very tough encounter, with Gosnells throwing everything they had at the Bulls.

It was 10 minutes into the final quarter before the Bulls capitalised on the opportunities they had created all day and eventually ran out handy winners.

BEST PLAYERS: Dave Walker, Ian Saunders, Julian Slavin and Mick O'Halloran.

In the Junior Ranks of the Club excellent performances were seen, with the under 18's, 16's, 14's and 10's winning very convincingly, and the 12's being defeated by a small margin.

BEST PLAYERS:

Under 18's — D. Hayden, K. Blurton, and S. Mavric.

Under 16's — J. O'Brien, P. Biffen and C. Duward.

Under 14's — J. Pisana, L. Blurton and M. Battista.

Under 12's — S. Gooderson, A. Blayle and R. Gibbs.

Under 10's — J. Jellic, P. Ward and A. Bink.

Well done Boys!!

A reminder to players and supporters all tickets for the colour TV raffle should have been handed in by now, so those who haven't returned books are requested to do so immediately.

BULLDOGS BULLETIN

Well done Bulldogs on the Double last Sunday. But let's not get carried away!!
THINK ABOUT IT.

Our wins this season have been by big margins. However, bar the first game, our losses resulted in even greater margins.

During the first half, the RESERVES displayed a good effort of football, with EMU HANSEN dominating in the ruck and EDDIE (BIRDMAN) LUCICH winning the ball in the centre and continually sending it into our forward line. IAN ALEXANDER created many opportunities at centre half forward and WALLY BIC finishing it off with 10 goals. After the long break, our boys tended to coast along slowly with the play.

COME ON FELLOWS!! 100 minutes of concentration and desperation.

BEST PLAYERS — Eddie Lucich (great to see him back in blue and white colours!!). Percy Hansen, Peter Austen and Neville Rose.

The League encounter developed into a one-way affair after Armadale scored 2 quick goals before the timekeepers had time to start their clocks. In the remaining time of the quarter, the display of football was a drab exhibition with both sides making numerous mistakes. The Bulldogs started to develop some system in the 3rd quarter, but we were still lacking that Killer instinct which we must acquire to go on further from here. By this I mean UP!!

BEST PLAYERS: Peter (mad dog) Edwards (who could quite easily develop into a star ruckman!!) David Ramshaw, Allan Maffina and Andy McIntosh.

Today we face yet another hurdle, so please come on fellows, let ALL stops out and achieve another double to John Dunn Park.

Welcome Barry Miles to our club and we sincerely hope he will have a and successful association with the dogs.

We would like to welcome Kenwick to our new ground and hope they will join us after the game for a yak 'n' a snack and a drink or two.

SOCIAL EVENTS

People are enjoying our Bingo sessions, Wednesday evenings at John Dunn Park, 8 p.m. sharp!! Why not join them and take home a great win. Refreshments are served during the evening.

CABARET: Don't forget our combined Hockey and Football Cabaret. Saturday, 19th July at Kelmscott Hall.

He have a great band in Nervana, with guest artist Clare Thomas. As always this promises to be a very successful night, so don't be disappointed. Purchase your tickets as early as possible.

OLD PLAYERS' DAY: Sunday, 13th July at John Dunn Park.

Let's make this one a "Big Day." There should be a lot of fun for young and old. I heard through the grapevine that Mr. Bulldog himself (T.R.) will be applying for position of Playing Coach for Old Players' Side. Personally, (who knows his capital rather well) would rather see him as a Runner.

THE HAWKS WILL STRIVE IN '75

Last Sunday's draw against Maddington, after wins against Thornlie and Kwinana, completed what surely has been one of the most successful periods in qualifying games experienced by the "Mighty Fighting Hawks" for many years.

The harmony that exists in the Club is being evidenced by successes on the score board and although it was disappointing to see the Seconds lose after putting themselves in a winning position, this young side must improve with experience.

INJURED PLAYERS — Numerous, but good to see two who have been laid up in Bruce Dalby and Nick Pasznicki back on their feet and able to lend vocal support.

SOCIAL NOTES

Sunday July 13th — Golf Day followed by B.B.Q. and Social at Clubrooms. See notices or enquire for details.

Plans are well under way for the "Hawks" Ball in August, more news to follow.

Two notable birthdays on June 26th — Mrs. Billie Minson and our man of the moment Peter Dougan, and a belated cheer for "Bucko."

Today's game — Armadale! Very important not to relax and a four quarter effort required by all to gain the points.

Players and supporters of Armadale welcomed to the Social Rooms for "Tit Bits" and "Tankards" after the game. EMU

TIGER RAG

A win and a loss resulted from Canning's encounter with Kwinana last Sunday. A win in the Reserves and a loss in the League.

In the League encounter Canning matched Kwinana after the first quarter in which Kwinana booted 10 goals in quick succession. If it wasn't for Kwinana's big lead in the first quarter, the results would have been closer at the finish.

Billy Archibald playing at centre-half-forward seemed to be Canning's best player with Craig Nock and John Hurley playing good games on the two wings. Bob Marks played soundly all day and was seldom beaten in the ruck. Alan Wheelock also played soundly and was one of the only real bargains on the day.

Others to do some good things were Brian Mangini, Peter Forrest and Grant Symonds.

The Reserves started in great form and over-ran the Kwinana side, but, with a few anxious moments in the last quarter. Once again, Ron and Gordon Hunter played strongly with Alan Steward and Tom Burford dominating the ruck. Ross Cowin, Ken Jacobs and Alan Hansen also played patches of good football. Len "Bluey" Mitchell used his talents gathered over the years and played a good, sound game.

SOCIALLY SPEAKING

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Geoff Mangini on the arrival of your baby daughter from all at the Canning F.C.

The Ball — 11th July (which is closer than you think), Cannington Central at 8 o'clock. Help Tony and the Caterers out by letting him know the numbers coming.

TROTTLING TIPS — See Hec Cooper for information.

BINGO: Tuesday and Thursday nights — Queens Park Hall at 8 o'clock — bring a party and support your club.

Maddington travel to Wyong took let's turn on the football and send them away disappointed.

Congratulations Lions on a good display of power football to completely dominate the league game against Mandurah. It wasn't until the third quarter that the Seaside's managed to score their first goal. To the Seaside's credit they did play better football from half-way through the second half to at least make a game of it.

The teamwork and kicking to position was a treat to watch, but, there is one thing to remember, the pressure wasn't really applied by Mandurah and it is here that we fall down. It's against top sides that Thornlie must produce this brand of football, so come on you Lions keep it going.

BEST PLAYERS LEAGUE: Frank Cook (plenty of guts and determination), Arthur Payne (good game in back pocket), Graham Bancroft (goals galore at full-forward). Others to play well, Ross Chappell, Greg Jewell and Ron Brown. The Reserves are not a very happy story at the moment, due mainly to the lack of attendance by the players.

Coach J.T. must be very disappointed in the attitude and application of these players, especially where it counts —

ON THE TRAINING TRACK.

For the Reserves to have only 17 players available for selection at a home game and to be forced into requesting members to strip to make up the numbers is very disappointing.

Needless to say the proof was in the result against Mandurah — enough said.

BEST PLAYERS, RESERVES: Bob Mildwaters, Graham Norris, David Payne.

Thanks to Ian Hedley and Bruce Comely for helping out.

Today we meet Kalamunda at Forrestfield and it is our intention to make it 3 in a row. Don't forget players: Our aim is 9 in a row, 7 to go.

SOCIAL NOTES

SAYING OF THE WEEK: "Without determination, man is an untempered sword."

"KEEP ON WRINKLING"

Both Roy's sides scored hollow wins against Kalamunda last Sunday. This was a result of 100 per cent effort being put in by all forty players.

The Reserves side played brilliantly right from the first bounce and kept constant pressure on the opposition for the entire hundred minutes.

Kalamunda were weakened by injuries, and they were unfortunate to come up against the fierce Royals side who wanted desperately to atone for their shocking loss against Mandurah the previous week.

It was impossible to pick out individual best players for the Reserves as it was a great team effort.

However, special mention must go to Wayne Ogg, who kicked magnificent goals and finished up with fourteen goals to his credit.

The League game was a one sided affair for three of the four quarters. The Royals bounced right into attack at the beginning of the game and kicked eight goals for the term. The second quarter was hard and slogging and the Royals only kicked three goals, plus numerous points.

In the second half the Royals got back on top and kicked fourteen goals for the half.

Had kicking been more accurate the winning margin would have been much greater.

Best players in the league side were Brian Thompson, Kevin Wilson and Paul Roberts with good efforts also being put in by Jim Gilbert, Tom Quinn and John Nicholas.

CONGRATULATIONS

To Jim Gilbert who celebrated his 21st Birthday last Saturday.

To Edna and John Hart who were married last Saturday.

To Owen Rodgers (Gatekeeper) and wife on the arrival of their new daughter.

Special thanks to Claude and Molly Backhouse for their support for the Club whilst in the West.

Today's games against Kelmscott — We have to continue on from where we left off last week and be sure that big wins are recorded by the Royals.
